This line of motor oils provides ultimate performance and protection for your engine, so you can get the most out of your European vehicle. The Elixir Full Synthetic Motor oils are blended with high-quality synthetic base stocks, a shear stable viscosity modifier, and the latest additive technology to provide the ultimate protection and performance for European vehicles.

Features:

- Formulated with excellent antioxidant, detergent and antiwear additive package
- Formulated with highest quality base oils to prevent sludge, deposits, and oxidation

Benefits:

- Offers the best protection and durability for your engine to enable extended vehicle life
- Maximizes oil's life, power output, & vehicle efficiency
- Offers extended oil drains to provide more miles and time between oil changes

FACTS 'n' FRICTION

You may be asking yourself, why do European vehicles require a different type of full synthetic oil? The answer is complex. In simplest terms, European engines are just built differently. European vehicles are designed to meet more stringent emissions, efficiency, and protection requirements than their American and Asian counterparts. That's why using the right oil for your vehicle is so important.
